

Week's Social Happenings in Towns of State

LOGAN.

The local camp of Woodmen had a big social on Friday evening. After initiating several new members the wives of the lodge members were admitted. They were laden with dainties of various kinds and a fine spread was served.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Larseh entertained on Monday evening in honor of their daughter, Ethel, who is here from Salt Lake City on a visit. Cards and music formed the evening's entertainment. Refreshments were served.

L. C. Farr returned the first of the week from Chihuahua, Mexico, whither he went on business some time ago.

F. M. Teets, of Salt Lake City, spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Logan.

The Crimson football team gave a big party in the B. Y. C. gym on Friday evening.

Mrs. Bessie Kemp, of Park City, is here on a visit to her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Martin Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. McCullough, of Louisville, are here on a visit to relatives and friends.

Dr. J. A. Widdowson spent part of the week in Salt Lake City at the bedside of his wife, who was very ill.

J. W. Scott, a well-known resident of this vicinity, moved his family and effects to Blackfoot, Idaho, this week, and will make his home there.

Ron Thatcher visited his parents and other relatives who reside here, this week. He returned home on Wednesday, being accompanied by his sister, Miss Lou Thatcher, who will visit friends in Rexburg.

M. B. Harden, of Dillon, Mont., spent the week with Logan friends.

The Usona society of the B. Y. C. gave a big ball on Saturday evening which drew out local society in force. Refreshments consisting of punch and nuts were served during the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Jensen, of Shelby, Ida., are visiting friends in Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mattern, of Syracuse, N. Y., stopped off here to visit friends this week, while on their way to visit relatives in the Yakima valley, Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. George O. Pitkin, prominent people of the south end of this county, have taken up their residence in Logan.

George M. Cannon, of Salt Lake City, spent part of the week in Logan on Sunday school business, and visiting friends.

Dr. W. B. Parkinson, Jr., of Lewiston, visited Logan relatives this week.

Dr. Joseph R. Morrell, of Ogden, visited Logan relatives the first of the week.

Mrs. E. W. Robinson spent the week in Provo, with her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Stevens, of Ogden, returned to their home on Monday, after visiting for three days with Logan relatives and friends.

Fred H. Turner returned to Magnath, Canada, this week after a pleasant visit with Logan friends.

Frank W. Jennings, of Salt Lake, was a Logan visitor the first of the week.

Miss Ada Milton gave a birthday party on Tuesday, in honor of Miss Vera Hawkins, of Samaria, Ida.

Orson Smith left here for Nevada on Tuesday.

W. S. Simpkins, of Salt Lake, visited in Logan this week.

A. A. Cooper, of McCammon, Ida., spent part of the week with Logan relatives and friends.

RICHFIELD.

J. W. Boyden, V. T. Oakley and J. W. Solomon returned to Salt Lake Friday after spending several days in Richfield.

D. P. Jensen was in Richfield Friday.

Alfred Johnson of Elsinore spent Friday in town.

Martin Jensen was in town from Redmond this week.

Lee Peterson of Salina spent Saturday in Richfield.

James Christensen is down from Salt Lake visiting relatives and friends.

Nephew Hennansen was over from Elsinore Saturday.

W. T. Sheffield and son of Lora spent Monday in Richfield.

Thomas Roberts of Joseph was a Richfield visitor last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sargent of Marysville are visiting with relatives this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Orson Monsin are down from Marysville visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. James Rasmussen is spending a few days with her parents at Gunnison.

Mr. and Mrs. Snow McDonald of Joseph spent Monday in Richfield.

William Johnston is spending the week in Salt Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Hicks were over from Monroe this week.

Charles Morquand of Elsinore spent Saturday in Richfield.

Hazel Irvine of Eureka stopped in Richfield on her way to Los, where she will teach school.

Mrs. Alice Gottfredson of Manti is visiting her daughters, Mrs. J. E. Nelson, and Mrs. Lester Ogden.

Charles Russell and wife of Salt Lake spent several days in town last week.

P. C. Nelson is visiting with relatives in Salina this week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Quist entertained a number of friends at dinner Sunday evening.

Mrs. Andrew Neilson entertained at a dainty luncheon last Friday afternoon.

MANTI.

R. Leo Spencer of Indianapolis and Miss Grace A. Nelson of Moroni were married at the temple Wednesday last by President Lewis Anderson.

Abraham Munkestone and Miss Pearl Brown, both of Provo, were united in marriage at the temple in this city Wednesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Peterson of Salina were Manti visitors at the temple during the week.

Mrs. Francis Hansen of Moien, Emery county, visited friends in Manti this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Bellefont of Nephi visited relatives and friends in Manti this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben W. Alfred of Spring City spent the week in Manti doing temple work.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Snow of Sterling visited relatives and friends in Manti during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Snow of Kingston spent several days in Manti visiting relatives and friends.

Niels P. Sorensen of Fountain Green spent the week in Manti doing temple work.

Miss Jennie Pettet of Sterling visited relatives and friends in the temple city during the week.

Mrs. Frances J. Martin and family of Provo were Manti visitors during the week.

Thomas J. Morley, Jr., of Moroni spent the week in Manti visiting with friends.

Mrs. Danna Meehan and Lucina Boren of Provo are spending a few weeks in Manti doing temple work.

Mrs. Elton Jensen of Wales was a Manti visitor during the week.

Eldora Hansen of Mayfield spent several days in Manti visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edmunds of Wales are in the city visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Johanna Christensen of Levan spent Tuesday last in Manti visiting friends.

Mrs. Zina Christensen of Mayfield visited friends and relatives in Manti this week.

The marriage of Miss Orissa Merriam and Frederick W. Anderson, both of this city, has been announced by Miss Rosetta Merriam, a sister of the bride-to-be, the reception to be held at her home on Wednesday, Nov. 27, 1907.

Both young people are among the highly respected and well known of our city, and hearty congratulations of success and happiness will be given by their many friends.

Clarence Madsen of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Madsen, and Miss Hazel Peterson of Ephraim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parley Peterson, were married at Nephi this week by Bishop Thomas H. G. Parkes of that place.

The young people have announced their intention of locating in Ephraim.

The Manti High school students appeared at the opera house Friday evening in the drama "Hearts and Clubs," which proved highly entertaining.

The show was a benefit, the means to be used toward the purchase of a piano for the school.

W. M. Pigot, president, and Perley A. Hill, secretary of the State Barbers' association, were in the city during the week receiving applicants for their association.

J. D. Killpack and Jonathan Killpack of Emery county were in the city last week, visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Killpack.

Dr. B. S. Allison, a brother of A. O. Allison of this city, intends locating in this city as a practicing physician.

Rowland Braithwaite returned this week from the east and other parts, after spending several months with relatives and friends. Mr. Braithwaite visited Indiana, Virginia, Illinois, Wisconsin and other interesting places, and returned much wiser and in good spirits.

Attorney Dilworth Woolley, formerly of Richfield, has put out his shingle in this city and formed a partnership with Albert H. Christensen.

Mr. and Mrs. George Black of Coyote are in the city visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Snow.

H. G. Fredericksen and son, Chris, returned this week from Eureka, where they have spent the summer working at the carpenter business.

Invitations are out announcing the annual ball of the Ladies' Literary club to be held in the opera house, Tuesday evening, Nov. 26, next.

LEHI.

The Utah County Teachers' Institute, held in Lehi Saturday, was attended by about 150 instructors from all parts of the county. Professor William Stewart of the U. of U. delivered the principal address. A banquet was served in the basement of the tabernacle, and the afternoon the pedagogues were shown the mysteries of sugar making by Superintendent James H. Gardner.

George A. Smith of Salt Lake City, private secretary to C. R. Cutler, spent Thursday with friends in Lehi.

Miss Helena Critzer, a U. of U. graduate, is acting as a substitute instructor in the local high school during the temporary absence of Miss Society.

E. J. Kirkham will leave next week for a mission to Germany, and George G. Schow will leave the same time for a mission to Scandinavia. A farewell social in the honor will be given Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Hillbrook entertained about fifty friends Thursday evening at their home at progressive finish.

Governor John C. Cutler and T. R. Cutler spent Wednesday in Lehi.

Rev. Wildman Murphy of Provo spent the last half of this week in Lehi on evangelistic work.

Freeman Bassett of the L. D. S. of Salt Lake City spent Friday evening in Lehi with the local high school football team.

W. E. Rucker spent most of the week in Salt Lake City on the federal grand jury.

Mrs. Abe Gudmundson, who has been living in Provo for the past two months, is home again.

Mrs. O. A. Slade, May Lott and Kate Kirkham attended a state meeting of the D. R. society in Salt Lake City Saturday.

James W. Win, who is running a ranch in Abraham for Senator John Y. Smith, is visiting relatives in Lehi.

John Peck has removed his family to Garland, where he will take charge of a ranch belonging to George Austin.

G. H. Smith of Blackfoot, Ida., is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Rachel Brown and daughter, Bernice, will leave next week for an extended visit to southern California.

James J. Turner is home from Colorado, Kan., to recuperate from a recent severe illness.

George Comer, who has been visiting with his son in Colorado for the past month, is home again.

James W. Taylor, who has been employed by the Idaho Sugar company at Rigby, Ida., will hereafter make Lehi his home.

The Fourth Ward Primary association will give a concert Monday evening.

Twin girls arrived at the home of J. A. Evans, bookkeeper for Jesse Knight at Knightsville, is visiting relatives here.

W. E. Rydahl of Provo delivered a lecture in the tabernacle Sunday evening under the auspices of the Sunday schools.

PROVO.

Dave Hatton and Miss Della Teasdale entertained about fifty of their friends at a skating party Thursday evening.

The principal features of the evening were races between members of the party.

Miss Mae Robison of American Fork and Roy Gillespie of Provo were married at the home of the groom's parents in Provo Thursday.

Roy Felt, P. G. Scott, Murray Snow and Reuben Watson were guests of the Kia Ora club Saturday evening.

The clerks of R. R. Irvine & Sons entertained at a skating party Monday evening.

Miss Hazel Taylor has returned from New York, where she has been engaged in the study of music. She will spend the holidays here, after which she will return and resume her vocal studies.

Misses Edith and Stella Young entertained their friends Saturday evening.

About fifty young people spent the evening in games and music. A dainty luncheon was served and those present had a very pleasant time.

The relief society of the Fourth ward gave a very unique entertainment Friday evening in the way of a play representing the early settlers of the ward, and impersonating various characters which was thoroughly enjoyed by those present.

The Sixth ward entertained Friday night in honor of the outgoing and incoming officers of the Mutual Improvement association of that ward.

Those of the Young Men's organization who will be released from work are President James Clove, assistants W. E. Stoker and I. A. Smoot, Secretary Alfred Rosetta, and a sister of the bride-to-be, the reception to be held at her home on Wednesday, Nov. 27, 1907.

Both young people are among the highly respected and well known of our city, and hearty congratulations of success and happiness will be given by their many friends.

Clarence Madsen of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Madsen, and Miss Hazel Peterson of Ephraim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parley Peterson, were married at Nephi this week by Bishop Thomas H. G. Parkes of that place.

The young people have announced their intention of locating in Ephraim.

The Manti High school students appeared at the opera house Friday evening in the drama "Hearts and Clubs," which proved highly entertaining.

The show was a benefit, the means to be used toward the purchase of a piano for the school.

W. M. Pigot, president, and Perley A. Hill, secretary of the State Barbers' association, were in the city during the week receiving applicants for their association.

J. D. Killpack and Jonathan Killpack of Emery county were in the city last week, visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Killpack.

Dr. B. S. Allison, a brother of A. O. Allison of this city, intends locating in this city as a practicing physician.

Rowland Braithwaite returned this week from the east and other parts, after spending several months with relatives and friends. Mr. Braithwaite visited Indiana, Virginia, Illinois, Wisconsin and other interesting places, and returned much wiser and in good spirits.

Attorney Dilworth Woolley, formerly of Richfield, has put out his shingle in this city and formed a partnership with Albert H. Christensen.

Mr. and Mrs. George Black of Coyote are in the city visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Snow.

H. G. Fredericksen and son, Chris, returned this week from Eureka, where they have spent the summer working at the carpenter business.

Invitations are out announcing the annual ball of the Ladies' Literary club to be held in the opera house, Tuesday evening, Nov. 26, next.

PARK CITY.

A very quiet but pretty wedding was that of Monday noon, when Miss Alice Turner became the wife of Jerome Paxton in the parochial parlors, Rev. Father Galligan performing the ceremony.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss May Turner, and Edward Paxton, brother of the groom, acted as best man. A reception was held immediately after the wedding at the home of William Turner, brother of Mrs. Paxton, and only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Paxton left on the afternoon train for Salt Lake on a short wedding trip. The young couple will make their home in Park City, where they will reside for some time.

Wish them a long and happy married life.

Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Hillstrom and family left Sunday afternoon for Idaho, where they will reside for some time.

Montague Allen spent the fore part of the week in Salt Lake on business.

Wm. D. Sutton is visiting in Salt Lake with relatives and friends.

Fred W. Sherman is spending a few days in this city with his wife and children.

Mrs. Clarence R. Drake returned to her home in Salt Lake Wednesday afternoon.

Ivan Evans was pleasantly surprised Saturday evening by a number of his young friends. Games were played and refreshments served.

Miss Myrtle Peterson entertained a few of her friends Friday evening. A delightful evening was spent in games, music and dancing.

Mrs. Neubit was a Salt Lake passenger this week.

The 500 Card club was entertained this week by Mrs. John Welsh. Mrs. Smith won the prize.

Mr. and Mrs. Giles entertained the Bridge Whist club Wednesday night.

Mrs. Lecompte entertained the Pioneer Whist club Thursday evening at her residence on Park avenue.

Mrs. Sherman Fargo entertained Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard and Miriam Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Giles and George Giles, Mrs. Allen and Montague Allen at dinner Sunday.

Miss Clara Fargo and Dorothy Fargo visited in Salt Lake this week.

Mrs. Howarth and little daughter, Irene, spent a few days in Salt Lake this week.

Mrs. Gertrude Breen and Joseph Frasier were married in the Catholic church Tuesday, Rev. Father Galligan performing the ceremony. Miss Breen was attended by her sister, Isabella, and Alex. McDonald was best man.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Breen, immediately after the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Frasier are well known in Park and have many friends who wish them all happiness and prosperity.

Francis and Robert Cunningham are visiting relatives in Salt Lake.

Charles Shields returned to Park Friday morning, after an absence of several weeks in Salt Lake.

Miss Bernal Durin and Andrew Burg, a popular young couple of Park City, were married in Salt Lake Monday.

They returned to Park Wednesday morning, where they will make their home. Their many friends extend congratulations.

deavor had a surprise party on John Daglish Friday evening. Guessing games were played and refreshments served and a good time had by all.

The Freshman class of the High school surprised their president, Miss Clara Kimball, at her home on Woodside avenue, Friday evening. All kinds of games were played. Music and dancing were indulged in and refreshments served. A delightful time was had by all present.

Society was out in force to see the presentation of "The Royal Slave," which was much enjoyed by all. Several suppers were served after the performance.

TINTIC.

H. Gustaf and wife were in Salt Lake on Wednesday.

Mrs. Edward Blue returned on Sunday from a visit with her parents at Goshen.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hanks last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leary of Park City are here visiting Rev. Father O'Donohue.

Mr. and Mrs. John Green are the parents of a baby boy, born on Wednesday of last week.

Mrs. Sadie Mangum spent Sunday with her parents at Salem.

Thomas Hansen returned to Eureka on Monday after nearly a year's absence.

A baby boy was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Garbett on Tuesday.

John R. Vance returned Sunday after a brief visit with his family at Payson.

Sam Boyle and wife of Knightsville were the guests of Payson friends the first of the week.

Mrs. John Hamlin was the guest of her relatives in Freedom, Utah, this week.

Charlie Goss left on Tuesday for Payson, where he will spend a few weeks with his family.

Fred Beasley was out from Salt Lake during the week, and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beasley.

Joseph Knotts and family were out from Salt Lake this week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Gill.

George Sydelinker and wife returned on Monday night from a visit with the latter's parents at Goshen.

Louis Hassel and wife returned to their home at the Spy mine on Monday after a visit with friends at Springville.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bryan of San Jose, Cal., are here for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Suggs. Mrs. Bryan is a sister of Mr. Suggs.

S. E. Ware returned to Silver City on Sunday evening, after a visit with Mrs. Ware and the children, who are residing at Payson.

Dr. and Mrs. Lombard of Salt Lake arrived in Eureka on Tuesday evening and spent a day visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Morgan.

William Matson moved his family to Nephi this week.

Mrs. Hector Fraser returned home on Monday from Nephi, where she spent three weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. A. Hyde, Jr.

Dr. Steele Bailey, Sr., and wife and the latter's mother arrived on Monday from Kentucky, and will visit with Dr. and Mrs. Bailey and Dr. Bailey, Jr., at the Tintic hospital in Robinson.

Mr. and Mrs. William Venable left yesterday for Salt Lake, where they will visit with friends for a few weeks.

Mrs. Venable has been quite ill for several days, and the trip was made for the purpose of benefiting her health.

Mrs. Openshaw, mother of Mrs. Ollie Baker and Mrs. Harry Beane, who came to Eureka last week, was taken down with pneumonia and on Wednesday she was removed to her home at Spring Lake.

SCOFIELD.

Mrs. E. W. Pitcher, mother of our former station agent, is visiting relatives and friends at this place.

G. J. Dunn, conductor of Scofield branch train of the Denver & Rio Grande, has been quite ill for several days, and the trip was made for the purpose of benefiting her health.

Gomer Thomas, formerly state coal agent, but now manager of Union Pacific coal mines at this place, is sojourning in Salt Lake City for a few days.

The magnificent school house now in course of construction is certainly a model, and a credit to Scofield's enterprising citizenship.

The friends of Mrs. Johnson and Gathern will be pained to learn of the sickness of the latter, as she has said sickness they were compelled to give up the management of the Walton house. The same has been rented to A. C. Lund, and your correspondent fully believes that in Mr. and Mrs. Lund will be found a very efficient management.

The funeral of Green Gilbert, formerly of this place but late of Red Lodge, Mont., at which he was accidentally killed last week, was held at this place Saturday, the 23d, under the auspices of I. O. O. F. and K. of P. lodges.

Through the enterprising management of the U. P. mines, many nice cottages have been built for the convenience and comfort of its employees. They are a credit to the management and an added beauty to the town.

EPHRAIM.

The many friends of C. N. Madsen and Miss Hazel Peterson will be pleasantly surprised to learn of their marriage, which took place at Nephi, November 13. The ceremony was performed in the county clerk's office by T. H. G. Parker. They left for Salt Lake on the afternoon train for a few days' visit.

Mrs. Carl Mattison of Salina returned to her home Monday after spending a few days with relatives and friends.

Dr. Charles Jensen of this city left Monday for the Hot Springs at Arkansas for the benefit of his health.

Miss Sedonia Olsen of Manti visited in this city Tuesday.